

//LOVE THE inverleigh STORY

April 2017

Announcement

Embracing the lighter side of football, Inverleigh launches an all-new weekly football series made for fans by fans - fans that understand the harsh realities of football and can make light of the major talking points this week in world football.

The latest in an expansive range of premium football content, Life's A Pitch as an excellent complement to Inverleigh's flagship series, The Football Review, a two episode per week magazine series. Life's A Pitch effectively means Inverleigh now offers three episodes each week of the very latest editorial, news and highlights from the major European and international leagues.

An irreverent football program that has fun with the major stories on and off the pitch!

Delivered to broadcasters every Wednesday.

Check it out at: <https://inverleigh.com/lifes-a-pitch/>