Fetch TV boosts live sports offering with the launch of Unbeaten Sports Channel, only on Fetch

Sydney, Australia — 1 April 2026 — Fetch TV today announced a major expansion of its sports lineup with the launch of Unbeaten, a linear sports channel that delivers a wealth of live international action and emerging global competitions to Australian sports super-fans.

Included for Fetch customers subscribed to the Vibe Pack ($7.99/month) or Ultimate Pack ($24.99/month), Unbeaten strengthens Fetch’s sports and entertainment lineup with year-round access to a dynamic mix of premium live events, international tournaments and discovery sports, further cementing Fetch’s position as Australia’s leading value home entertainment streaming service.

Unbeaten, owned by Australian sports content company Inverleigh, delivers wall-to-wall sporting action with a primary focus on live competition across football, basketball, combat sport while offering a front-row seat to sports often under-represented in mainstream broadcasting or streaming, making it a compelling alternative for sports fans.

This addition reflects Fetch’s ongoing commitment to bringing greater choice, flexibility and amazing value to Australian family households - ever more important amid current cost of living challenges. Unbeaten is only available on Fetch.

Dominic Arena, CEO of Fetch TV, said, “I am super excited to launch Unbeaten only on Fetch, giving our customers unmatched value with access to exciting international competitions and emerging leagues they may not have been able to watch before.

Our mission remains to deliver streaming content variety and universal discovery within one seamless, easy-to-use experience at the lowest price in the market. Unbeaten is a perfect addition to our platform, offering year-round action that complements our existing suite of sports content available on Fetch via TV channels, on demand and within streaming apps.”

Matt Bellotti, Head of Channels at Inverleigh, said, “Over five years, Unbeaten has become a popular destination for sports fans the world over, reaching millions of loyal viewers predominantly across the US, Europe, and Asia every week. We’ve waited for the right opportunity to launch a dedicated feed in our home market and Fetch is the perfect home for a channel driven by a passion for sport - that same passion shared by sports fans across Australia.”

Designed for the modern global sports enthusiast, Unbeaten on Fetch combines live coverage with curated highlights, storytelling, and feature programming that helps fans connect more deeply with the sports they follow. With Unbeaten only available on Fetch, we’re creating new viewing opportunities for passionate fanbases while inviting casual viewers to discover something different.

Unbeaten boasts a consistent pipeline of real-time events, seasonal leagues and showcase tournaments, ensuring no off-season for sports lovers. Its programming supports both lean-in viewing during marquee events and lean-back discovery for audiences exploring new competitions.

The addition of Unbeaten reinforces Fetch’s position as the leading value all-in-one entertainment destination, bringing together live sport, premier streaming apps, Free-to-Air channels streamed over broadband, great-value premium content packs, and on-demand viewing including movies in one simple, super-value subscription.
